Pacific had some great results at both branch carnivals. Our u11- u14 improved our over all points score on last year, and seen us move up a few places. We also manage to qualify a record number of team events for the state. Our little dudes u8-u10 also performed well and also achieved some great results. Below are our results of all that finished in the top six. Its worthy to note that we are now making finals in boards, iron man, and surf races.

Queensland State titles

This years state titles will be at North Kirra on the 14th-16th of March. We have a team of 40 representing the club this year, and are expecting some great results as well as letting everyone know that Pacific is a force to be reckon with. The titles attract over 1500 competitors from all over the state, and for all those that have already attended one you know just how special this event is not only for the competition but also the friendships and camaraderie.

Last Day of Nippers and Break up

The Last day of nippers will be the Sunday the 2nd of March with the Presentation day being the following Saturday starting at 3.00pm for activities (Jumping castle, face painter, BBQ) with the presentations kicking off at 5.00pm.

AGM – Pacific nippers- make a difference.!!

We will be having our AGM for Pacific nipper s on the 02/03/2013 at 11.00 am right after our last day of nipper finishes. This is where we will elect all positions for next year. At the bottom of the news letter is a list of all positions. As Pacific goes from strength to strength, we are going to require more dedicated people to help deliver the programmes that our children have enjoyed over the last few years. This will included assistants etc. If you have what it takes please nominate and get on board. Remember every little bit helps. Please see nomination form below if you want to nominate for a postion on next years committee.
